

Mr. Scandrett's STEAM Website Scavenger Hunt

Mr. Scandrett's STEAM Website

Type this into the browser, NOT Google search:

MrScandrett.Github.io

2nd - 3rd Period · 6th–12th Grade · Teams of 2 Only!

Directions: Work with one partner. Use the exact lesson titles named below. Read carefully, click only the buttons named in each question, and record what you discover. Questions 1–8 are required. Questions 9–10 are bonus if your team finishes early.

Navigation Tip: If a question tells you to click a tab, slider, panel, or button, look for those exact words on the page.

Name: _____ Partner: _____ Period: ____ Date: _____

1. Open "Newton's Laws of Motion." Under "Real-World Examples of the Second Law," what are the 3 examples shown?

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

2. Open "Periodic Table of Elements." Which halogen is found at the bottom of the halogen group, and what U.S. state is it named after?

Part A. Name the element.

Answer: _____

Part B. Name the state.

Answer: _____

3. Open "Types of Cells." What 3 main cell types are students asked to compare in this lesson?

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

4. Open "Volcano Simulator." Which Icelandic volcano says its ash cloud grounded 100,000 flights across Europe for 6 days?

Answer: _____

5. Open "Mechanisms and Gear Systems." Set the "Driver gear" to 12T and the "Driven gear" to 36T. Then click "Engage motor." What happens?

- ☐ Lift
- ☐ Stall
- ☐ Crash

Answer: _____

6. Open "Archimedes' Principle." In the "Choose an Object" area, find the two objects with a density of 2.7 g/cm³.

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

7. Still in "Archimedes' Principle," choose "Foil Ball" and click "Drop it in >". Based on what happens, does the foil ball behave more like:

- ☐ a solid piece of aluminum
- ☐ a hollow boat

Answer: _____

8. Open "Event Horizon Telescope." Click "Select all." Make sure "Sync Status" says "Correlated." Then click "Clock sync ON" once to turn synchronization off.

Part A. What exact word replaces "Correlated" under "Sync Status"?

Answer: _____

Part B. What happens in the "Reconstruction Preview"?

Answer: _____

Bonus Explorer Questions

9. Open "Climate Modeling Simulator." Click the "Carbon" tab. Then move the "Deforestation" slider from "0% pristine" to "100% barren." What happens to the carbon particles?

- ☐ They move into the land.
- ☐ They move up into the atmosphere.

Answer: _____

10. Open "Searching for Extraterrestrial Intelligence." Click "Arecibo Message." Which part of the message represents the Solar System?

Answer: _____

Post-Scavenger Hunt — Not required, but extra credit for High Schoolers

Extra Credit Reflection: Answer these only after the scavenger hunt is done.

A. What bugs did you notice throughout the website?

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

B. What would you like to add?

Answer: _____

Answer: _____

Answer: _____